

THE ELECTIONS.

A Big Day's Work.

Returns from yesterday's election were slow coming in, and the following gives the situation at 3 a. m. today.

It was a great day's work, so far as heard from—a republican sweep for the most part.

The republicans carry Ohio, state ticket and legislature, the plurality hovering about 50,000; and President McKinley's own state stands by him royally.

The Massachusetts republicans plurality is set down as over 65,000. The democrats carry Boston by 6200.

Kentucky goes republican by from 6,000 to 15,000.

Maryland goes democratic by 10,000.

New Jersey elects republican ticket by 20,000.

New York elects a republican legislature.

Pennsylvania republican by 140,000.

Montana democratic by 30,000, as usual.

Nebraska elects the fusion ticket.

Iowa goes republican by a very large figure.

Kansas elects republican ticket and shows heavy republican gains.

The above election news was secured through the courtesy of the New England Telephone Company.

Brightbrook Hospital Aid Association.

The quarterly meeting of the Brightbrook Hospital Aid Association was held at the Hospital Monday, Oct. 30, and was well attended.

The treasurer reported $26.50 in the treasury, $12.50 having been expended. The members now number 90, with three honorary members. The reports from the various committees showed there had been considerable interest shown by the members in the welfare of the hospital. Some substantial gifts have been received in the line of clothing, household supplies and furnishings. The reading committee has furnished besides second-hand books and magazines, a three months' subscription to Harper's Weekly. The sewing committee have made underwear and bedding and $2.00 was received by that committee from the W. C. T. U.

A loving tribute was paid to the memory of the former superintendent, Miss Noyes, who died at the hospital in September, by Mrs. P. F. Hazen, and the new superintendent, Miss Crawford, and her assistant Miss Dickinson, were welcomed to the hospital.

The following committees were appointed: Finance: Mrs. E. T. Ide, Mrs. T. M. Howard, Mrs. John Balch, Mrs. W. Wells, Mrs. C. Caswell.

House and Visiting: Mrs. P. F. Hazen, Mrs. J. M. Allen, Mrs. A. W. Roberts.
